COMMON CONFIDENTIAL SCHOOL REPORT FORM

Grades 3-11

Why a Common Confidential Report Form?

The listed schools have worked together to develop and distribute this form to reduce unnecessary duplication of information, and they encourage the use of this form. The following instructions tell you how to complete, copy and submit your Common Confidential School Report Form with any one or several of the schools. The information provided allows the school to become more familiar with your child during the admission process. The completed form is made available only to the members of the Admission Committee of the school. If your child's teacher cannot complete the form, please advise the school of the circumstances.

Section to be completed by parent:

Fill in the information below and give this form to a teacher who has taught your child recently. Provide the teacher with an addressed and stamped envelope for each of the schools to which you are applying for admission.

Student's Name _____ Current Grade _____
